CHECK US OUT!

National Poetry Month

World Book Night
April 23, 2014

World Book Night "Givers" Reception

Wednesday, April 16
6 - 7:30 pm
Connections Cafe

World Book Night U.S. is part of a campaign to encourage reading and giving. Free paperbacks will be handed out across America all on one day—April 23, 2014—by enlisting volunteer book lovers to promote reading by personally giving specially printed books to light or non-readers and to those without the means or access to them. Even if you aren't an official World Book Night "Giver", come and get a free book that you can give to some one on April 23!

Special thanks to:  friends of Tempe Public Library

Author Presentation

Jana Bommersbach

Winnie Ruth Judd:
Trunk Murderess

Tuesday, April 15
7-8 pm
Library Meeting Room A

Since the 1930's, Winnie Ruth Judd's name has been cloaked in mystery and questions: did the beautiful young girl really kill her best friends; did she really cut them up into pieces; did she really do all this alone?

Ms. Bommersbach answers all these questions in a skilled probe that won Arizona's Don Bolles Award for Investigative Reporting. Her book was then recognized as one of the nation's five top non-fiction books in 1992, when it was nominated for the prestigious Edgar Allan Poe Award. It also won Arizona's only literary prize.

Meet Author

Dutch Jones

Saturday, Mar. 1
1-3 pm
Library Main Floor

Meet Scottsdale resident Dutch Jones, writer, entrepreneur, and radio talk show host. He has written several novels, articles and is an active blogger. His newest novel, Long Trip Home is a journey of a man, who in an act of fate is catapulted from his normal life into a life that is exciting and so different than anything he could ever imagine.

Meet Author

Shelley Sikora-Holman

Saturday, Mar. 8
1-3 pm
Library Main Floor

Chef, entrepreneur, author, instructor, and broadcast host Shelley Sikora-Holman will be signing copies of her new book Skinny Bread Cookbook. Ms. Sikora-Holman had her own TV cooking show, "Home Plates" and now teaches cooking classes at Sur La Table, Kitchen Classics and Sweet Basil Gourmet.

Water Safety Plan – Child drownings are one of the top causes of injury-related death for Arizona children. The Tempe Public Library and the Phoenix Children's Hospital make it easy to develop a water safety plan. Work with an expert, learn to recognize child drowning risks and address them at home or places you visit. We will focus on parents with children 5 and under. 480-350-5802

Gender Matters – When we bond with children and form healthy relationships, we lay the foundation for healthy brain development. Research shows that there may be a neurological reason why boys and girls behave differently. Understanding how boys and girls learn is important information that allows children to succeed by teaching the way a child learns best. Fee: None. 480-350-5802
